JUST ROCK IPSWICH LEISURE DANCE & CAR CLUB INC

Behaviours

To support and ensure the ongoing success of Just Rock Ipswich Leisure Dance & Car Club Inc (JRI), all members are expected to display and adhere to behaviours consistent with the JRI core values of:

- Leadership
- Responsibility
- Respect for others
- Honesty

Complaints

- Any person or parties making a complaint must put the complaint in writing and forward the complaint to the Secretary together with all accompanying documentation to substantiate the complaint.

Meeting protocols

So that meetings are conducted in an orderly fashion members are expected to:

- Speak to the chair and other members in a respectful manner which the positions demand
- Not interrupt or talk while other members are speaking

Social Media

JRI believes that online social networking can be an important communication tool. To support and enhance this important tool, members are expected to note:

- The Social Media Policy applies to all members and to all activities you engage in relating to JRI interests
- The club uses its web page, Facebook and emails to regularly send messages, flyers, information and advertising to members and to the public
- JRI will not tolerate any online social networking which may have the potential to harm JRI
- Postings to a social media site are subject to the same defamation, anti-discrimination and intellectual property laws as other publications, such as newspapers
- Postings may also amount to bullying or harassment

Constitution

- JRI members are governed by the JRI Constitution and by-laws
- The president is charged with the responsibility of actively ensuring that all members adhere to the Constitution and by-laws

On becoming a JRI member you agree to display behaviour values and comply with and abide by the Just Rock Ipswich:-

- Constitution and bylaws
- Social Media Policy

You understand that the Management Committee has the right to accept or reject membership applications and to terminate memberships due to misconduct.
